Elizabethtown College Alumni Association

Welcomes Graduating Seniors

Each year at this time our Alumni Association takes pleasure in the opportunity to welcome into its membership those are about to be graduated.

During your stay here at the college, your time has been devoted to preparing for the assumption of your professional and vocational responsibilities. We hope that your experience and association with our institution has been, not only educational, but personally enriching in every possible way.

As a graduate of Elizabethtown College you will exemplify, in your chosen profession, all the qualities for which this institution stands.

The Alumni Association sincerely wishes you great success in the future. It also extends to you a cordial invitation to join the members in their efforts to maintain and enhance the traditionally fine image of your Alma Mater.

Sincerely
Dr. Henry R. Hoerner, '55, President
Elizabethtown College
Alumni Association

These 2 pages belong to the editor. They express a very personal recollection of these last four years. The book in your hands describes only one of those years. It is not a book of words, but rather a book of faces . . . and places . . . and thoughts . . . and reminiscences. Hopefully, somewhere within these pages, you too can discover some of those faces . . . and places . . . and . . .
